ANNUAL REPORT

FISCAL YEAR 2020

In 2021, we changed our name from Attention Homes to TGTHR (Together), to signal the start of our new movement to end youth homelessness.

TGTHR, along with our youth and community, will stand united to support a world where every young person is a valued and supported member of our community.

All of the content in this report is a reflection of work done under the name Attention Homes in the fiscal year 2020 (10.1.2019-9.31.2020).

Dear Friends,

In a tumultuous and challenging year, TGTHR rose to the challenge of continuing to serve and empower young people facing homelessness in our community.

We are proud that our dedicated staff pivoted quickly to put new protocols into place so that our continuum of care—emergency shelter, a residential program for youth in foster care, and permanent supportive housing—could operate safely throughout the pandemic. We are moved by the resilience of youth in our programs, who remained focused on building their futures through education, employment, and positive connections with their peers and supportive adults. And we are gratified to see the outcomes of our work—including young people achieving their academic goals, gaining and maintaining employment, and transitioning from our programs to independent housing.

Even in this challenging time, TGTHR continues to work toward expanding our reach. We are collaborating with partners throughout the state and beyond to build the infrastructure to serve more young people in more places. Our organization's new brand and mission statement reflect these ambitions.

None of this would be possible without your generous support. We are grateful to the individuals, government agencies, businesses, and community organizations who have been steady partners in pursuing our vision—an end to youth homelessness. Working together, we will make this vision a reality.

MISSION

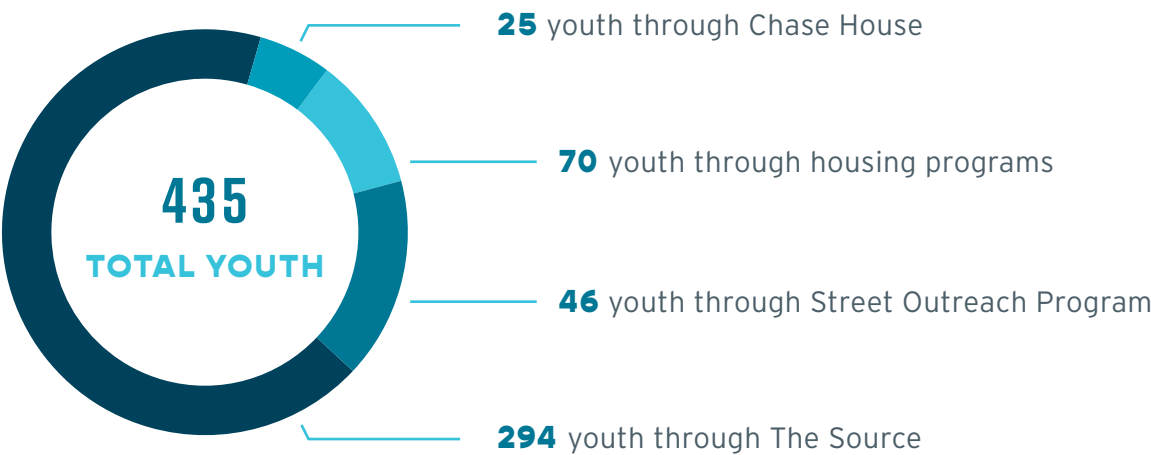

We are building a movement that galvanizes communities, empowers young people, and puts an end to youth homelessness. We won't stop until every young person is valued, empowered, and safe.

VALUES

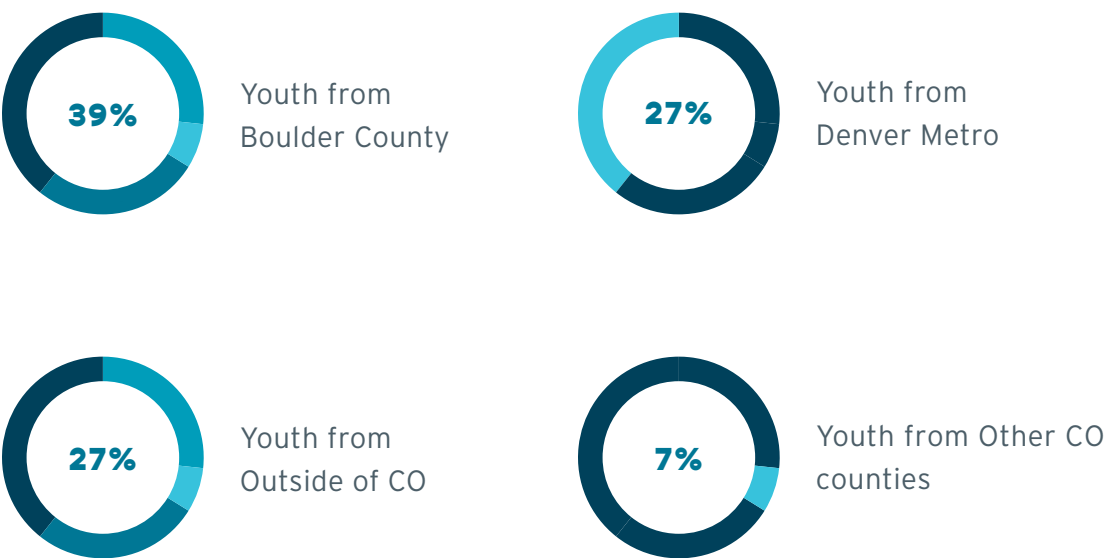

- We believe growth is rooted in relationships.
- We believe in wildly celebrating resilience.
- We believe there is strength in diversity.
- We believe in promoting youth voices.
- We believe that housing is a fundamental right.

TGTHR (formerly Attention Homes) is a social movement and nonprofit working with courageous communities across the country to end youth homelessness. Through a variety of programs, we provide youth between the ages of 12-24 with employment assistance, education programs, supportive housing, short-term housing, long-term housing navigation, support and inclusivity groups, family coaching services, life-skills development, mental and physical wellness support, and an array of individual and group activities.

IN FISCAL YEAR 2020 WE SERVED

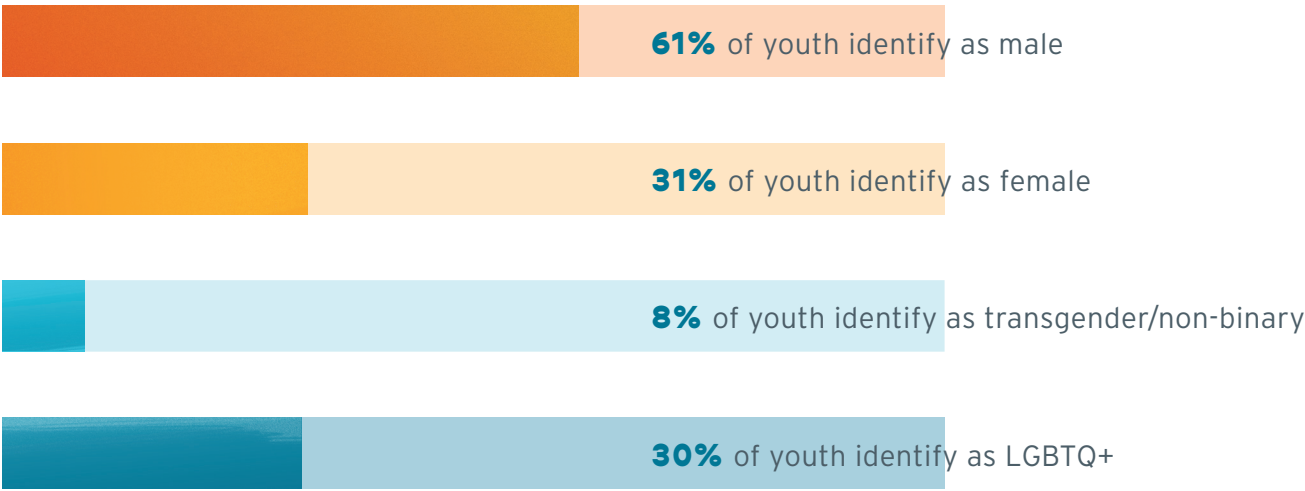

WHERE TGTHR YOUTH CAME FROM

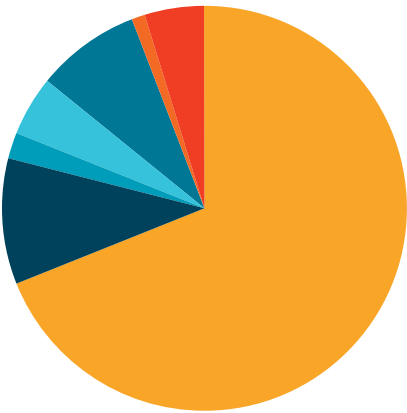

*Total youth served decreased in 2020 due to COVID-19 restrictions. Our Continuity of Operations Plan was quickly implemented to ensure we continued to stay open and serve as many youth as possible while following CDC protocols. We anticipate an increase in need for services in 2021 due to an increase in family displacement, job loss, and evictions due to the pandemic.

CHASE HOUSE

A safe, structured home-like atmosphere for youth placed through social services due to family disruptions and other crises.

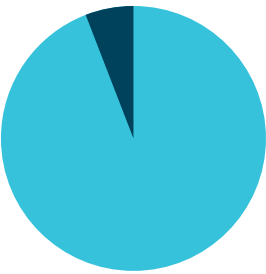

Providing youth 12-17 years old with temporary residential, behavioral, and case management services that prepare them for long-term success.

TGTHR's staff worked hard with families to place youth in safe housing during COVID-19, lowering the number of youth staying at Chase House. We wanted to ensure that every young person in the house had space and individual attention, particularly as they faced the challenges of online education.

HER STORY

In 2020, Mia (she/her/hers) had been staying at Chase House for one-and-a-half years. When Mia first arrived at Chase House she was incredibly hesitant to engage in case management and socialize with staff and other youth. She was shy and expressed anxiety in living at Chase House, so she self-isolated in her room most of the days. Over months, staff were successful in developing rapport and trust with Mia by slowly bringing her into conversations and jokes. Mia started to set goals with her Case Manager and brainstorm realistic steps she could take to reach those goals. Once Mia set her mind to those goals, there was no stopping her. She started to actively engage in school with incredible academic performance, and demonstrated consistent attendance. Mia also started to work part-time, which helped her gain confidence and important life skills. The ultimate end goal Mia set for herself was to return home. She enthusiastically engaged in family coaching with the staff at TGTHR and after her year-and-a-half stay at Chase House, Mia successfully returned home to her adoptive family.

THE SOURCE

Through an Emergency Shelter, Drop-In Center, and Street Outreach Program, we provide youth 12-24 years old with support to meet their basic needs, while helping youth meet their goals around education, employment, housing, and overall well-being.

Reducing youth homelessness through a continuum of care that moves individuals from the streets toward stable housing and/or family reunification.

During COVID-19, we suspended Street Outreach and closed our Drop-In Center to keep staff and clients safe. We transitioned to offering in-person appointments in our courtyard, providing case management and personal connection during this tough time, and applied a grab-and-go approach for hygiene items and food. We also implemented a COVID-19 resource hotline for people to navigate available resources in the community.

2020 OUTCOMES

- 44 youth moved from shelter to stable housing, 29 of which moved to our housing programs
- 19 individuals participated in the GED program for a total of 98 hours
- 52 youth gained or maintained employment despite job insecurity due to COVID-19
- 46 youth had interactions with our Street Outreach Team
- 3,705 health kits and non-food necessities were distributed to youth

THEIR STORY

Ilya (they/them/theirs) first came to The Source in 2019 after leaving a motel in Denver where they were living with their family. Ilya said they came to The Source because they wanted to find a stable place to live and needed a little bit of help. When they first got to The Source Ilya instantly started working toward the goals of employment, education, and housing. They landed a job at a warehouse in Longmont and successfully worked there for over a year when they were approved by the Housing Panel for a security deposit and three months worth of rent. Ilya continued to work with TGTHR's Transitional Living Program Case Manager to apply for apartments at various housing complexes TGTHR partners with. During this time Ilya also started school at Red Rocks Community College, and set the goal to continue with these classes even after they leave The Source. Ilya successfully moved into their own apartment and is still attending classes at Red Rocks. They plan to raise their GPA and transfer to CU Boulder for Physics.

HOUSING

Serving ages 18-24, TGTHR partners with community agencies, landlords, and government entities to secure rental subsidies in sites throughout Boulder County to make housing affordable for youth experiencing homelessness. TGTHR also built Colorado's first non-time-limited supportive housing community for previously unstably housed 18-24 year olds, with 2020 being its first full year of operation.

Youth in TGTHR's housing programs are provided case management services to help with employment, independent living skills, and educational goals to build toward long-term stability and self-sufficiency.

Many of our housing clients lost jobs during COVID-19. With staff support, 67% of program participants have returned to work and are stably employed again.

2020 OUTCOMES

- 67% gained or maintained employment while in housing
- 8 youth exited to independent housing
- 72% maintained housing for 6 or more months
- 5 youth formed a Tenant Association and spearheaded a community clean-up day
- 2 youth passed their GED test

Hours of case management

Enrolled in college or professional certification program

Hours of mental health and substance use counseling

HIS STORY

Andre (he/him/his) came to 1440 Pine in December 2019 as a referral from Boulder County, as one of the ten reserved apartments for young people aging out of the foster care system in our county. While at 1440 Pine, Andre engaged in case management, life skills groups, and pro-social activities. During his stay at 1440 Pine, Andre obtained his CNA Certification and promptly gained and has maintained employment as a long-term care provider. He has the goal of saving enough money to move into independent housing within the next year, and is working with his Transition Specialist to make that into a reality.

A LOOK AT THE FUTURE

With the launch of our new brand, TGTHR, we are starting a movement to expand into other communities and create solutions to end youth homelessness.

We are establishing a Justice, Equity, Diversity, Inclusion (JEDI) Committee to ensure our practices, policies, programs, and organization are inclusive and accessible to all individuals. We are partnering with the City of Boulder and the City of Longmont to better streamline our street outreach efforts for people experiencing homelessness. We are supporting the professional development of our amazing staff, with staff members continuing their education, gaining relevant certifications, and receiving promotions within our organization.

Tenants of the 1440 Pine Tenant Association are committed to recommending improvements to the building’s policies and activities to better support their peers at 1440 Pine.

Program participants are signing up for our housing programs at a high rate and we are excited to witness the progress young people are making to move into independent housing.

Thanks to our dedicated staff and board members, TGTHR’s future looks bright!
