MISSION

To end youth homelessness.

Through a continuum of care, TGTHR moves young people from the streets or unsafe living situations into housing programs that support their overall well-being. Services are designed to encourage young people to build healthy communities, empower them to set their own goals, and provide them with the tools to become independent.

For youth between the ages of 12-24 TGTHR provides:

- Drop-in & overnight shelter
- Food, clothing, showers, medical care, resources
- Employment assistance
- Education programs
- Supportive housing
- Case managers
- Counselors
- Short term housing
- Long-term housing navigation
- Support and inclusivity groups
- Family coaching services
- Life-skills development
- Mental/physical wellness support
- Individual and group activities
- Sense of community and independence
- Individual and group activities
- Community and independence
- And much, much more

PARTNERS

Ending youth homelessness requires all types of individuals, companies, schools, and partners, to come together to create a community where every young person is valued, empowered, and safe.

By participating as a partner, your support will ensure supportive housing programs and services are readily available for hundreds of young people in our community. Your support will transform lives.
