

A PATH FORWARD TGT+HR

Annual Report

Fiscal year 2022

10.1.21 - 9.30.22

Dear Friends,

2022 was an exciting and transformational year at TGTHR, thanks to the support and contributions of many donors, community partners, government agencies, businesses, foundations, volunteers, staff, and board members that helped bring the TGTHR community together.

We are thrilled to look ahead as TGTHR continues to evolve. We will be bringing on a new era of CEO leadership to the organization in 2023 and expanding services to Denver in 2024. Before we do that, however, it's important to look at where we've been. For over fifty years we have pursued our mission to end youth homelessness, and 2022 was no different.

Last year TGTHR provided 247 individuals with services at our overnight shelter, residential program, drop-in center, and housing programs. While the work is not done, it is gratifying to see young people achieve their academic goals, gain and maintain employment, and transition from our programs to independent housing.

Although every young person we meet has their own story, there are common factors that contribute to a youth experiencing homelessness. We continually focus on better understanding these factors and addressing them by meeting young people where they are. Whether a young person needs mental health support, individualized trauma counseling, life-skills development, employment and education pathways, LGBTQ+ support groups, substance use education, or another of our services, our goal is always to help them become healthier and better equipped to transition to independent adulthood. We are also growing our reach by expanding to Denver, where TGTHR will be the supportive services provider at a new housing complex - 2700 Wewatta. The building will provide 56 units of affordable housing to 18-to-24-year-olds and is an important step forward in our efforts to partner with more communities that share our ambition of ending youth homelessness.

We are grateful to the countless individuals who have been steady allies in our vision of ending youth homelessness. By collaborating with partners statewide and beyond, TGTHR is creating a foundation for serving more young people in more places. We are incredibly excited about the ambitious movement we're creating to end youth homelessness, and we thank you for joining us.

Gratefully,

VALUES

- * We believe growth is rooted in relationships
- * We believe in wildly celebrating resilience
- * We believe there is strength in diversity
- * We believe in promoting youth voices
- * We believe that housing is a fundamental right

MAKING YOUTH HOMELESSNESS RARE, BRIEF, AND NON-RECURRING

At TGTHR, young people are offered an array of services including employment and education assistance, housing navigation, support groups, individual counseling and family coaching services, life-skills development, mental and physical wellness support, and a variety of group activities to foster an inclusive environment and supportive relationships.

A CLOSER LOOK AT WHO WE SERVE

Many of our youth have previously experienced:

Unsheltered nights (50%)
 Trafficking/exploitation (21%)
 Mental health concerns (55%)
 Violence and conflict (49%)
 Foster care (39%)

TGTHR provides an upstream solution to chronic homelessness and moves young people from instability to long-term stability and self-sufficiency.

People of color continue to be overrepresented among TGTHR youth.

PATHWAY TO INDEPENDENT LIVING

IMPROVING WELL-BEING

EDUCATION & EMPLOYMENT

PERMANENT

STABLE HOUSING

At TGTHR, we are ending youth homelessness by providing programs that improve young people's physical, social, and emotional well-being; supporting education and employment paths; fostering permanent connections with caring adults and the community; and focusing on helping youth secure safe and stable housing. An overarching commitment to these four core areas guides every aspect of our work.

IMPROVING WELL-BEING

youth received behavioral healthcare services

EDUCATION & EMPLOYMENT

147 youth were employed and/or enrolled in an educational program

PERMANENT CONNECTIONS

30 youth exited TGTHR to permanent housing in the community or with family

STABLE HOUSING

95%

of youth in TGTHR housing programs maintained housing six months or longer

A young person with short brown hair is sitting on a wooden bench, smiling at the camera. They are wearing a grey and white long-sleeved shirt and light-colored pants. Behind them is a wall covered in colorful graffiti, including a large rainbow and various abstract shapes. Two wooden skateboards are leaning against the wall behind the person. The lighting is warm, suggesting late afternoon or early evening.

IMPACT & GROWTH

"I'll be leaving TGTHR's Source Shelter and getting an apartment at 1440 Pine in a few weeks. So I'll have an apartment after almost a whole year of being at a homeless shelter. No longer that thought hanging over your head of the possibility of not having somewhere to sleep."

BUILDING A MOVEMENT TO END YOUTH HOMELESSNESS

Growing Housing Programs

In 2022, participation in TGTHR's housing programs increased by 40% and we provided stable housing to more youth than ever before. TGTHR remains committed to growing our housing programs further in years to come.

In 2022, TGTHR housed 30% more youth than in 2021.

Expanding to Tackle Youth Homelessness

In 2024, TGTHR will start providing services at a new supportive housing project in Denver. 2700 Wewatta will follow the same successful model as 1440 Pine – safe affordable housing paired with support to help young adults move from homelessness to self-sufficiency.

Influencing Policy

In 2022, TGTHR joined the first cohort of the Statewide Supportive Housing Expansion (SWSHE) Pilot Project that utilizes federal funding to support organizations that provide wraparound services. TGTHR's engagement in this project will bring a youth-centered lens to policies on financing for supportive services in housing. This funding will be used to provide youth who are on Medicaid with services that support them in obtaining and/or maintaining stable housing.

Raising Awareness

Governor Polis visited TGTHR in November to highlight our programs, discuss affordable supportive housing, and officially recognize National Homeless Youth Awareness Month. We also continued building relationships and collaborations with agencies across the state.

STREET OUTREACH

"I'm very creative and like to make music and that's a good outlet for me. I am trying hard to get my life back on track - I am really focusing on getting housing, working, and changing the situation I'm in. I want to live life right, I want to stop being homeless basically."

Today, irrigation water remains in motion throughout Boulder. Above ground and buried at times, the continues to transport water, for the movement of wildlife and the beauty of Boulder's neighbor

*STREET OUTREACH 2022 IMPACT:

274 connections with young people

24 youth entered our programs

13K food items were distributed

5K health items were distributed

6K basic needs items
were distributed

TGTHR's Street Outreach team is on the street five days a week, connecting with youth experiencing homelessness and building relationships with young people living on the streets so they feel safe to enter our programs.

In addition to handing out food, hygiene supplies, and other necessary items to those in our community experiencing homelessness, the outreach team provides information on TGTHR services and other resources available to them.

SHELTER & DROP-IN CENTER

"Something I've learned living here is that it's easier to control my anger here than when I was homeless. I know how to control my emotions better and that makes me a happier person."

BRANDON

TGTHR Program Participant

* SHELTER & DROP-IN CENTER 2022 IMPACT:

96

youth had a safe place to sleep

143 youth accessed resources at the drop-in center

511 hours of counseling and family coaching were provided 18

youth moved from The Source into TGTHR housing programs

22

youth safely exited The Source to live with family

Through an overnight shelter and drop-in center, The Source provides a safe, welcoming environment for all genders, ages 12-24, with the goal to move young people from unstable living situations to safety, stability, and improved physical and mental well-being.

TGTHR's model is to create a one-stop shop for as many resources as possible. In addition to meeting young people's basic needs and providing a safe place to stay as they gain stability, TGTHR provides an array of on-site supportive services and pro-social activities to build relationships with youth and help them achieve their goals.

RESIDENTIAL PROGRAM

"The challenges you face are all about being resilient. Not everybody sees that it took a lot of resilience and courage for me to ask for help. We're strong people too, using the resources available to get back on our feet."

ANTONIO

TGTHR Program Participant

* RESIDENTIAL PROGRAM 2022 IMPACT:

23

young people were served

391

case management sessions were provided

82%

of youth connected with healthcare services

83%

of youth engaged in an academic program

96%

of youth improved their life-skills

Chase House is a state-licensed Qualified Residential Treatment Program serving youth in the foster care system ages 12-18. TGTHR's Chase House provides a safe, home-like atmosphere for youth who have been placed by child welfare agencies due to family disruption.

While at Chase House, youth receive help with their schooling, family coaching services, life-skills development, mental and physical wellness support, equine therapy, community integration, pro-social educational and recreational activities, and an array of individual and group activities. The goal is to prevent youth from aging out of the foster care system into youth homelessness.

HOUSING PROGRAMS

"Right now I am focusing on my GED and getting a job. I want to go into nursing, that's what I feel is pulling me right now. I love helping people. Because I'm taken care of here, I try to help people when I can just like I have been helped."

MAKAYLA

TGTHR Program Participant

*HOUSING PROGRAMS 2022 IMPACT:

82

young people were stably housed

49%

of youth saw an increased income after being housed

66%

employed and/or enrolled in education

57%

of youth previously accessed services at The Source

56%

of youth who left 1440 Pine moved into independent housing

Affordable and accessible housing, coupled with supportive services, is the key to ending youth homelessness. TGTHR's housing programs put young people on a path toward long-term stability and help prevent them from re-experiencing homelessness.

1440 Pine is a 40-unit housing complex that provides an inclusive community with support staff and an array of services for young people between the ages of 18-24.

The Transitional Living Program connects young people between the ages of 18-24 with housing in the greater community. Once housed, Case Managers work with young people to help ensure they remain stably housed.

PROGRAM OUTCOMES

The path toward better outcomes for young people is unique and ever-changing.

Although every young person we meet has their own story, there are common factors that contribute to a youth experiencing homelessness such as domestic violence, abuse and neglect in the home, poverty, systemic racism, substance misuse in the household, mental health barriers, LGBTQ+ discrimination, and foster care involvement.

We continually focus on better understanding these factors and incorporate them into our services.

IN 2022:

247

total young people came to TGTHR

18,468

stable nights of safe sleep were provided to youth

82

youth had independent housing through TGTHR's housing programs, and 30 youth successfully transitioned to stable housing outside of TGTHR

JEDI

JUSTICE, EQUITY, DIVERSITY, AND INCLUSION

At the core, ending youth homelessness is a cause rooted deeply in justice. We believe housing is a right, and we know that individuals who are Black, Indigenous and people of color (BIPOC), LGBTQ+, as well as those with disabilities, experience homelessness at disproportionate rates.

31%

31% of TGTHR youth identify as LGBTQ+

37%

37% of TGTHR youth
identify as Black, Indigenous, and people of color

29%

29% of TGTHR youth have a developmental disability

In 2022, TGTHR's JEDI Committee helped facilitate the following steps of progress toward becoming a more inclusive, diverse, and equitable organization:

147 hours of anti-oppression training were provided

$8,375

was invested in equity consultants

176 hours were dedicated to JEDI efforts, engagement, and the development of the JEDI Strategic Plan

JEDI STRATEGIC GOALS

Effectively strategize recruitment to attract more diverse applicants, better reflecting the young people we serve.

ENHANCE INTERNAL PROCESSES, POLICIES & PROCEDURES

STRENGTHEN YOUTH REPRESENTATION

Build a youth driven organization by creating more opportunities for authentic youth engagement and leadership.

ENHANCE DIVERSITY IN BOARD LEADERSHIP

Develop effective strategies to recruit and attract more diverse board members to better reflect and support the young people we serve.

ENHANCE ANTI-OPPRESSION EDUCATION & TRAINING

Invest in and develop a continued education and training program to help all staff and board members gain skills in navigating allyship and complex conversations that involve race, privilege, and power dynamics in order to dismantle racism and discrimination in the workplace and in larger communities.

"I became a meal donor in 2015 and in my interactions with the youth at Chase House I was struck by their spirit and resilience. I engage them in making their own meals and it's wonderful to see them rally around a project, working well TGTHR and supporting each other. I feel incredibly fortunate to be part of this community of skilled and caring staff and volunteers who are committed to making a difference in the lives of our youth."
